Students will also focus on play production as a whole – directing, producing, designing, etc. This class is designed for the student interested in serious study of the theatrical arts.

Assessment and Grading (BP 5121 / AR 5121): To ensure that every student has an equal opportunity to demonstrate their learning, the course instructors implement aligned grading practices and common assessments with the same frequency.

1. Grading categories and their percentage weights:
 - a. Performances, Projects, Tests – 40%
 - b. Daily Participation and Class Work – 50%

Note: Dropping this course mid-season may result in a Withdrawal (W)
3. Homework/outside of class practices (AR 6154):
Students are expected to work on memorization of their monologues and scenes, and rehearse an appropriate amount outside of class to be comfortable to perform in front of the class. In addition, students are expected to attend at least ONE performance of a live play or musical outside of MVHS and report reactions each semester. Students are also expected to attend all official MVHS productions (Fall Play, Spring Musical, Acting 2/3 Class Play) and will receive a free ticket to each. Exceptions given for students who are part of the production, either onstage or backstage.

All Acting 2/3 students are expected to participate in the Acting 2/3 class play in May 2019. Rehearsals will largely be during class, but there may be some after school rehearsals in late April/May to prepare for the performance.
4. Excused absence make up practices (Education Code 48205\(b\)):
Students with an excused absence will have the opportunity to make up a missed work. They must schedule an appointment during tutorial or after school to make up a performance.

5. Academic integrity violation practices (MVHS Academic Integrity Policy):

There are no course-specific guidelines for academic integrity violation. Please see the MVHS Academic Integrity Policy: Honesty, trust and integrity are vital components of the education process. The Governing Board believes that academic honesty and personal integrity are fundamental components of a student's education and character development. The Board expects that students will not cheat, lie, plagiarize or commit other acts of academic dishonesty. There are three categories for violations of academic integrity based on the severity of the offense (Categories A, B, and C). Examples of academic integrity violations include, but are not limited to, copying homework, allowing someone else to copy your work, plagiarism (taking or passing off another's ideas as one's own, including using Internet sources without documentation), copying from another's exam, improperly obtaining and/or using tests, and using unauthorized notes/materials. Check with your teachers if you are unsure of their expectations.

6. Late work practices:

Our department believes that all work must be of an excellent quality which means that constant improvement is a necessity. Students are expected to practice until they master their part. Late or missing assignments will be marked as 'Incomplete' until requirements have been satisfied.

7. Revision practices:

See number six above. Specifically, students will have the opportunity to perform again to achieve proficiency.

8. Extra credit practices:

Extra credit will be given for any extra play performance critiques submitted on Google Classroom.

9. Additional grading practices:

Acting 2 and 3 is largely a participation based course. Repeated absences may have an adverse effect on a student's grade. Students are expected to come to class prepared and ready to participate.
